Native American History Month

In 1990, the United States passed a law to designate November as National American Indian Heritage Month. More recently, in November 2022, the governor of New Hampshire wrote a proclamation declaring November is Abenaki Heritage Month. Do you think Abenaki history should only be taught in November or should it be taught throughout the year and why? Why do you think Americans need a special month to celebrate Native American or Abenaki culture? How do you think your class or school should celebrate Native American history and Abenaki history?
